The Misses West have a fine line of fall and winter samples in the latest fabrics for suits, shirt waist and evening dresses. If any ladies desire to see them before they can call, please address them at 455 North Main street, or telephone 404-21.

One of the chief charms of "Under Southern Skies" lies in the quaint costuming of the characters. The period in which the story is laid is in the early '70's, and the dressing of the actors will be found, by those whose memories carry them back, to be faithful and accurate in every respect. At the opera house tonight.

Now that I am better from rheumatism I will make new work. Sewed or pegged French kip shoes. Warranted good fit or no sale. All kinds of fine work and repairing. Anyone suffering with rheumatism, I would recommend them to try Mr. Charles Stone's O'Pepper Oil. I have used it and find it the best remedy I ever tried. It can be had at my shop. Moses Charbonneau, under Phelps' hardware store, Gordon block, Barre, Vt.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember that after marriage many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown of Bennington, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." The Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store sell and guarantee them at 50c per bottle.

Hard on the Senator's Friends.

This story is told by a resident of Maryland who vouches for its genuineness:

During the last session of Congress two young ladies endeavored to gain access to the Senate gallery. The grumpy old doorkeeper told them that every seat was filled and that the only chance was to see some Senator they knew and get a card which would admit them to the private gallery.

"But we don't know a single Senator," answered one of the young ladies. "Then that is to your credit, young ladies. Walk right in. It is not often we see such ladies around the capital."—Charleston News and Courier.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup seems especially adapted to the needs of the children. Pleasant to take; soothing in its influence. It is the remedy of all remedies for every form of throat and lung disease.

Ten thousand demons gnawing away at one's vitals couldn't be much worse than the tortures of itching piles. Yet there's a cure. Doan's Ointment never fails.

Burdock Blood Bitters gives a man a clear head, an active brain, a strong, vigorous body—makes him fit for the battle of life.

Croup instantly relieved. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Perfectly safe. Never fails. At any drug store.

WILLIAMS' INDIFFERENT.

Trial of Soldier Accused of Murdering Policeman McGrath Begun.

Burlington, Sept. 25.—The trial of Benjamin Williams, a soldier, for the alleged murder of Policeman James P. McGrath in this city on the night of May 12, 1904, was begun Saturday in Chittenden county court. Attorney General Clark C. Fitts, who is conducting the prosecution for the state with State's Attorney Sherman, examined at least a dozen witnesses Saturday, including Joseph La Barge. Witness could not positively identify the prisoner.

The defense has yet made no statement as to its line of argument.

Before the examination Judge Haselton asked Williams a question. Williams did not answer and retains a stolid indifference. His attention seems to wander. Frank Lavally, a night watchman in the Shepard & Morse lumber yards, testified that on the evening in question, while on his rounds he saw McGrath and Williams walking together, the former having his hand on the latter's shoulder. He heard McGrath say: "You had better go back." Williams replied that his feet were sore.

This conversation took place at a point between the Rutland railroad track and the electric car tracks between College and Main street. Lavally said that was all the attention he paid to them. He said he then had walked back some distance when he heard three reports. He turned around and saw the man that had been with McGrath running down into the lumber yard.

The state's case will be all in today.

LEFT LEG SEVERED.

Engineer Fred E. Harvey Victim of Express Train at Bradford.

Bradford, Sept. 25.—Fred E. Harvey, an engineer on a northbound freight, was hit by the 6:30 express Saturday night and his leg severed at the ankle.

His engine was on a siding, but near enough to the main track to be hit by the express train and crush Harvey, who was riding his engine. The injured man was taken to Hanover hospital. The freight engine was badly damaged.

Closely Resembles Girard.

New York, Sept. 25.—Detective Sergeant Price Saturday night received the following message from detectives who were sent to Peekskill to search for Girard, the suspected murderer of Augustus Pfeiffer: "We have run into the woods here a man who closely resembles Girard. We have surrounded the woods and are keeping guard tonight and tomorrow."

The Key Clerk's Mistake.

"It's queer how a fellow in my business learns to read people, you might say," said A. K. Pope, key clerk at the Midland Hotel, two or three days ago to a friend. "I have got so that I can usually tell what people are and what they want when they come up here to the desk. Now here comes a solemn looking man who appears to be a church deacon. We have a minister staying here. I bet he wants to see the preacher. Listen now!"

"How do you do?" said the clerk, bowing politely as the man approached. "You want to see the Rev. Mr. Blaue, I presume?"

The other man hesitated. "No," he said, "I want to see J. G. Lake."

The clerk wouldn't give up. "He's a minister, is he?" he asked.

"Well hardly," came from the man on the other side of the counter. "He's one of the bartenders in my saloon in Joplin. Is he in his room?"—Kansas City Times.
